
MOVIE INDUSTRY

NOTICE

Attention Chicago-area drivers:

A resume bank has been created for the Chicago-area movie industry and is accessible electronically via ChicagoMovieDrivers.com.

Those interested in possibly working as a driver in the movie industry in Chicago may add their personal resume, contact information, and qualifications directly to the resume bank by creating an individual account on ChicagoMovieDrivers.com. If you previously provided work-related information on a pre-printed form, please be aware that the information provided has already been uploaded to the database. The previously utilized method of providing work-related information on a written form has been discontinued and will not be used further. Those who previously submitted such forms should still create an account and log-in to ensure all prior information is correct and up to date. It is your sole responsibility to submit correct information.

PLEASE NOTE: The electronic Chicago-area movie industry resume bank is not administered by Local 727 and is not a referral system. Inclusion of a resume in the database is neither an endorsement nor a guarantee of employment. Use of the database by potential employers is at their sole discretion and all hiring decisions are made exclusively by the employer. Should you have questions about employment, contact the appropriate individual at the specific production company. Should you have technical difficulties with the website, please contact the vendor responsible for its maintenance at (847) 419-9900.
