It's been a little over four years since Chicago re-opened following the COVID-19 pandemic. In those four years, we learned a lot at Teamsters Local 727. We learned how to negotiate virtually and we learned that we don't like to negotiate virtually. We learned just how essential our Teamsters brothers and sisters are in the world and we've learned how hard we have to fight to get employers to value that hard work. Most of all, we learned how important family is—including our Teamsters Local 727 family.

On behalf of the Executive Board and Staff, thank you for putting your trust in us as we've navigated life post-pandemic. Because of your trust and solidarity, Teamsters Local 727 has negotiated over 119 contracts and 55 television shows and movies over the last four years. We've organized 15 new groups, had 2 strikes, and put over 1200 new members into Teamsters Local 727 health insurance.

We've lived up to our motto: when we fight, we win. Thank you for your strength, your solidarity, and for always showing up to the fight.

In solidarity,

John Coli, Jr., the Executive Board, and Staff of Teamsters Local 727
